Bedford Ladies 4 v 0 Hitchin Hearts Belles

The Belles slip to Second defeat of the season

The Belles started brightly competing in an even first 25 minutes without creating too many chances. Belles conceded a free kick 25yards out which was converted with a fortunate deflected own goal from a Belles players head 1-0.
The Belles were starting to create chances with first Tayla striking over the bar, then Holly firing at the keeper. With half time drawing closer a defensive error on the left allowed the Bedford player a run on goal to convert 2-0

Half time score: 2 v 0

After the break The Belles came out strongly competing in midfield with Dolly and Sam putting in some strong challenges, but despite all the effort and against the run of play Bedford scored a third 3-0.The Belles kept going and good strike by Holly hit the bar it was not to be the Belles day and in the last 5 minutes Bedford made it 4-0
A good competitive performance from the Belles despite the score-line
